

Diversity Statistics 2019

The following represents responses to a voluntary diversity survey in accordance with diversity data requirements. The firm received a 63% response rate to the survey and the results are based purely on the responses received. As such, the overview is not fully representative and should be interpreted as indicative only.

Socio-economic background

Disability

